

„Migration and Illegality: Key Problems and Possible Interventions”

Workshop of the Programme on Intercultural Conflicts and Societal Integration (AKI) at the Social Science Research Centre Berlin, 21 and 22 November 2003

Provisional Programme

[Thursday, 20 November 2003, from 20:00, informal meeting at “Steffens”, Potsdamer Str.
131]

Friday, 21 November 2003

9:30 Welcome and Introduction Karen Schönwälder

10:00 Migration and Illegality: Research and Major Debates in the US/in Europe

Douglas Massey

Godfried Engbersen

11:15 coffee break

11:30 Size and Structure of the “Illegal” Migrant Population

Dita Vogel

Frank J. Bean

13:00 lunch break

14:00 Characterizing the Problem: Political and Economic Implications

a) Political and Legal Aspects

Hubert Heinhold

NN

Leo Monz

Thomas Faist

15:15 coffee break

b) Economic Aspects

Slobodan Djajic

Thomas Bauer

17:30 Labour Demand and Employment Conditions in Selected Economic Sectors

Ferdinand Fasterding/Daniela Rixen on agriculture

Edith Gross on the construction industry

Helma Lutz on domestic employment

19:30 Conference Dinner

Saturday, 22 November 2003

9:15 [If necessary, continuation of the discussion]

9:15/10:15 The Living Conditions of “Illegal” Migrants in Germany

Jörg Alt on his recent research project

Philip Anderson on his Munich study

Susanne Schwalgin on the Münster project on domestic employment relations

Norbert Cyrus on forced labour

Piotr Korys on Polish migrants and research on illegal migration in Poland

Judith Rosner, agisra, on the experiences and perspectives of an NGO

13:00 lunch break

14:00 Political Interventions

Holk Stobbe

Guiseppe Sciortino

Franck Düvell on Global Mobility and Issues of Justice'

17:00 Concluding Debate (incl. comments on the development of research)

18:00 End of the Workshop