equalsoc
ECONOMIC CHANGE, QUALITY OF LIFE & SOCIAL COHESION

The Intergenerational Transmission of Inequality. Analytic Possibilities from Existing Data.

(Educ/Famnet/Incdis)

Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung (WZB)
March 15-16, 2010

Workshop Program

March 15

13.15-13.30 Welcome
13.30-15.30
Chair: Brian Nolan

- Spilerman S.: Issues and insights from the inclusion of household wealth in the parental resource portfolio
- Poggio T.: Transmission of different forms of capital and intergenerational mobility
- Albertini M.: The European farmer and the intergenerational transmission of wealth. A descriptive analysis

15.30-16.00 Coffee break

16.00-18.00
Chair: Chiara Saraceno

- Nolan B., Esping Andersen G., Whelan C., Maître B. and S. Wagner: The role of social institutions in inter-generational mobility
- Robert P., Elaborating on the country regime map of societies in an enlarged Europe
- Pintelon O., Cantillon B. and K. Van der Bosch: The social stratification of "new" and "old" social needs

March 16

9.00-11.00
Chair Teresio Poggio

- Layte R. and C. McCroy: The role of health selection in the intergenerational Transmission of health and inequality
- Van den Bosh K.: What prevents intergenerational class mobility? The role of health and the impact of welfare state interventions
- Venturini L.: Differences in parents' health and vulnerability to poverty among children

11.00-11.30 coffee break

11.30-12.50
Chair Claudine Attias Donfut

- Kasearu K.: How persistent is poverty in different social contexts?
- Whelan C., Maître B. and B. Nolan: Analysing intergenerational influences on income poverty and Economic vulnerability with EU-Silc

12.50-13.45 lunch

13.45-15.45
Chair Chiara Saraceno

- Attias Donfut C.: Intergenerational theories applied to migrant families
- Watson D.: Intergenerational transmission of subjectivity
- Filandri M. and T. Poggio, European comparative data for the study of the intergenerational transmission of inequality