How to find the hotel

By taxi

Even though we cannot reimburse taxis, we would recommend to take them. A taxi will cost about EUR 23 from Airport Tegel, EUR 35 from Airport Schönefeld and EUR 11 from Train Station Hauptbahnhof.

By public transport

Another easy way to get around in Berlin is to use the public transport. For more information have a look at the Web-site of the Berliner Verkehrsbetriebe (BVG, www.bvg.de/index.php/en).

Reimbursement rules

Accommodation

The hotel will be booked for you from WZB/MPI for Tax Law and Public Finance, and we will settle the bill for single rooms for the three nights directly to the hotel.

According to administrative restrictions, we cannot pay for additional hotel nights or extra costs for double rooms. But we can certainly arrange the accommodation for you if you plan to bring your partner or stay extra nights.

Travel

The WZB/MPI for Tax Law and Public Finance settles travel accounts based on the German Civil Service Travel Regulation (Bundesreisekostengesetz). The following receipts are required for reimbursement:

- plane ticket and receipt/invoice of your travel agent.
- for electronic tickets booked via internet: receipt/invoice of the ticket and boarding pass (so as to demonstrate that you made the flight indeed).
- train ticket and receipt/invoice of your travel agent.

Only tourist or economy class – APEX/Euro budget fares will be reimbursed. Please book your flight/train as soon as possible to meet reimbursement requirements. Make sure that you obtain a receipt/invoice which must be sent to the WZB/MPI for Tax Law and Public Finance for reimbursement (together with the ticket or boarding pass for e-tickets) after your travel has been completed.

The cost for public transportation in Berlin will be reimbursed. However, neither taxi journeys nor parking fees can be reimbursed.

Other expenses

All other expenses, e.g. additional hotel services, taxi journeys etc., cannot be reimbursed.

When registering for the conference, you will receive a reimbursement form with the heading “travel expenses”. You are kindly asked to fill in and send this form together with the original tickets and receipts/invoices to the MPI for Tax Law and Public Finance after you have completed your travel. The amount due will be transferred to your personal bank account. Note, that no part payments will be made at the conference.
