

13. Finanzwissenschaftliches Seminar
am 07. November 2014
WZB Berlin, Reichpietschufer 50, 10785 Berlin

PROGRAMM

Ab 9.15

Kaffee

9.45 – 10.45

CHARLOTTE BARTELS, FU Berlin

The impact of participation tax rates on labor supply decisions

11.00 – 12.00

VERENA GRASS, DIW Berlin

A rising tide lifts all budgets?

12.00 – 13.00

DAVID ROSTAM-AFSCHAR, FU Berlin

Do tax cuts increase consumption? An experimental test of Ricardian Equivalence

13.00 – 14.00

Mittagessen

In der Kantine des WZB sind für uns Tische reserviert.

14.00 – 15.00

LARS SCHWETTMANN, Halle-Wittenberg

How you ask is what you get: Willingness-to-pay for a QALY in Germany

15.15 – 16.15

HOLGER LÜTHEN, FU BERLIN

Early retirement disincentives: Effectiveness and implications for distribution and welfare

16.30 – 17.30

MICHAEL WEBER, ifo Dresden

Efficiency losses from decentralizing job placement services – evidence from a German policy experiment