Friday, February 27
9:00 - 10.00 Registration and Coffee

10.00 - 12.30

Panel I: Thematic Context: Why Measuring Europeanization?

Causal Approaches in the Context of Europeanization Research: A Meta-Analytic Perspective

Prof. Dr. Claudio Radaelli (University of Exeter)

Measuring the Europeanization of Law-making in Institutional Context: From Executive Dominance to Parliamentary Scrutiny

Prof. Dr. Thomas Koenig (MZES, Mannheim Center for European Social Research)

Measuring Europeanization to Understand the Transformation of the State? Identifying European Causes of Market-oriented Modernisation

Prof. Dr. Hans-Jürgen Bieling (University of Hamburg)

Comment/Discussion:

Prof. Dr. Gunnar Folke Schuppert (WZB)

12.30 - 14.00
Lunch

14.00 - 16.30

Panel II: Strengths and Weaknesses in Cross-Sectoral Quantitative Approaches

Denmark: Prof. Dr. Jørgen Grønnegaard Christensen (University of Aarhus)

Finland: Prof. Dr. Matti Wiberg (University of Turku)

Austria: Dr. Marcello Jenny (MZES)

France: Eric Kerrouche (University of Bordeaux)

Germany: Dr. Annette Elisabeth Töller (University of Erfurt)

Comment/Discussion:

Prof. Dr. Thomas Koenig (MZES)

16.30-17.00
Coffee

17.00 - 19.00

Panel III: What Can Cross-Sectoral Analysis Learn From Sectoral Quantitative Approaches?

Culture and Environment

Dr. Wybe Douma (Asser-Institute)

Environmental and Social Policy

*Prof. Dr. Gerda Falkner (Institute for European Integration Research, Austrian Academy of Sciences/ University of Vienna)*

Tax Policy

Dr. Susanne Uhl (DGB, Confederation of German Trade Unions)

Transport Policy

Dr. Dieter Plehwe (WZB)

Comment/Discussion:

Prof. Dr. Susanne K. Schmidt (University of Bremen)

Saturday, February 28

9.00 - 13.00

Panel IV: When Law Meets Politics: Facing the Methodological Challenges

Introduction: Facing the Methodological Challenges

Dr. Annette Elisabeth Töller (University of Erfurt)

9.15 - 11.00
1. Focus on National Law and Law-Making

Can We Compare at all? National Styles in Law Making: A Challenge to Comparative Measurement?
Dr. Marcello Jenny (MZES, Mannheim Center for European Social Research)

Measuring the Europeanization of National Law-Making: Facing Specific Methodological Problems
Dr. Michael Stoiber (University of Technolgy Darmstadt)

Measuring Hierarchy, Complementarities, or Degrees of National Autonomy?
Dr. Oliver Treib (Institute for Advanced Studies, Vienna)

How Far are National Policies Reflected in Laws? On the Limits of Analyzing Legal Acts
Prof. Dr. Gunnar Folke Schuppert (WZB)

11.00 - 11.15 Coffee

11.15 - 13.00
2. Measuring What? Subjects and Sources of Europeanization

What Can We Measure? How Much Complexity Can We Manage?
Dr. Dieter Plehwe, WZB

How Far Does Separating Different Types of Law Get Us in Terms of Europeanization Effects?
Prof. Dr. Linda Senden, University of Tilburg

Do Portfolios Matter? Or Does EurLEx Help? How to Organize Policy Sectors in Data Bases
N.N.

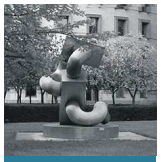

3. How to Interpret the Data We Generate?

Is Less Europeanization More National Autonomy? – And Other Nasty Questions
Prof. Dr. Jørgen Grønnegaard Christensen

The floor is open for any more questions that participants may wish to discuss.

Panel V: Prospects of Further Collaboration

The final discussion can be continued over lunch, coffee

Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin
für Sozialforschung

D-10785 Berlin
Reichpietschufer 50

www.wz-berlin.de

WZB Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin
für Sozialforschung

Social Science Research Center
Berlin

Conference

"Measuring the Europeanization of Public Policies Beyond the 80%-Myth"

February 27 - 28 2009

Social Science Research Center Berlin (WZB)
in cooperation with AEI
with financial support from the European Commission

Organizers:
Dieter Plehwe, WZB
Annette Elisabeth Töller, Erfurt University

